

The Train Ride begins the Adventure to Candy Mountain

Will races to the train. The adventure begins! Is he really going to Candy Mountain. Is it really made out of candy? There are decisions to make. Each one proves more mysterious than the next. What will Will and his new friend Quinn do when they have to choose?

Come along and share the journey. Find your candy basket and decide what you would do!

Inspired by stories shared with author's grandson, these pages filled with magical adventure also includes lessons about friendship and kindness, being respectful, and making positive decisions.

Includes Questions and Activity pages to extend the learning.

"Follows a young boy as he embarks on a magical journey to Candy Ville. During his travels, he discovers how being a good and respectful person can really pay off."

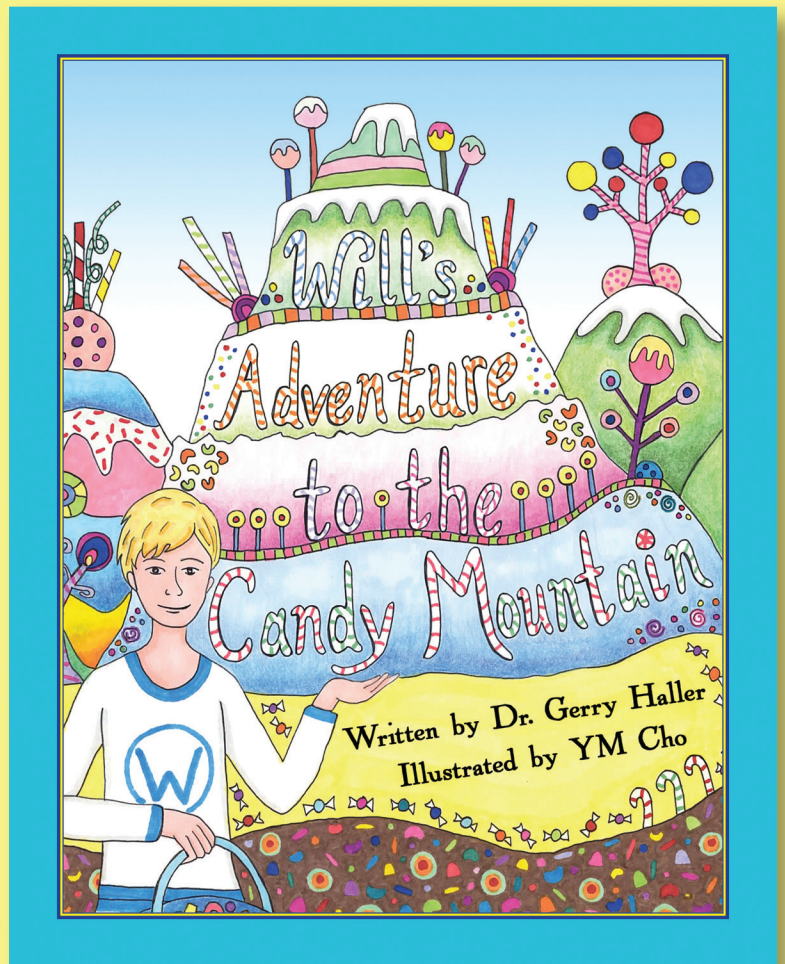

— Foreword Reviews

"The message is clear: life is full of sweet offerings, but friendship and kindness are more important than sweet treats. One has to always be courteous. Beautifully told and presented."

— Emily-Jane Hills Orford, Readers' Favorite

Author Dr. Gerry Haller is an accomplished educator having received many awards in the teaching, curriculum, and administrative fields. She has degrees from Bradley University, Master's in Administration from Augustana, and Doctor of Education from Nova Southeastern University. A gifted public speaker, she has presented at conferences from London to the U.S. and has taught principals, teachers, and children throughout her career. Dr. Haller is also a proud mother and grandmother.

64 pages 8 x 10 full color illustrations
978-1-7372002-2-2 hard cover $24.95
978-1-7372002-4-6 soft cover $19.95
978-1-7372002-5-3 ebook $7.99

"Gerry Haller's gentle tale is inspired by stories she told to her grandson...Adults will appreciate that the book celebrates and rewards good behavior. This relaxing journey through a land of treats is a pleasant low-key bedtime story for young children."

— BookLife Review

Children Are Special Press www.ChildrenAreSpecialPress.com

Available nationally: Bookstores/libraries - Ingram

Individuals and organizations – online and local bookstores